

God's continued purpose for Israel

Guest Speakers

Dr Calvin L Smith

Calvin was raised the son of missionaries to the Gypsy people of southern Spain, where he attended school during the latter years of the Franco regime. After returning to the United Kingdom he earned degrees in Education/Languages and History/Politics before completing a PhD in Theology at the University of Birmingham. He researches and publishes in the areas of Latin American Protestantism, Evangelicalism and Politics, Pentecostal Studies and the relationship between the Church and Israel. He is Principal of King's Evangelical Divinity School, teaching Theology and Hermeneutics, has travelled extensively, broadcasts and speaks widely on his research and teaching interests.

Jonathan Farrell

Jonathan is the Director of Student Affairs for StandWithUs UK and directs the UK Emerson Fellowship, a national leadership and training program that trains and equips the next generation of Israel educators across University campuses nationally. Jonathan co-founded the Exeter University Friends of Israel society in 2014 and was a leading activist in support of the Jewish people, countering antisemitism and prejudice against Israel.

He speaks to churches, Christian youth groups, synagogues and student communities across the UK about the importance of standing against antisemitism and supporting Israel from a historical, biblical and modern perspective.

Exhibition & Resources

Christian Friends of Israel UK will have its usual well-stocked resources stall available and representatives from other Israel-related ministries will exhibit during the day.
