Annual Conference 2024

Friday 27th to Saturday 28th September

Guest speakers

Steven Notley is Professor of New Testament and Christian Origins at Nyack College New York City, chair of the college's Biblical and Theological Studies Department and theological advisor at Bethsaida Julius Galilee archaeological excavation. He received his PhD from the Hebrew University and lived for 16 years in Jerusalem, during which time he was the founding chair of the New Testament Studies Program at Jerusalem University College. He engages in collaborative research and publication with Israeli scholars in the fields of historical geography, ancient Judaism and Christian origins.

Jacob Vince became Chief Executive of Christian Friends of Israel (UK) in 2010. He holds a masters degree in property valuation and law, and is by profession a Chartered Surveyor. He worked on a kibbutz in the late 1970s, and lived in Jerusalem in the early 1980s. He served fifteen years as a Church Commissioner on the Board of Governors, and is a member of the General Synod of the Church of England since 2005.

"We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law and about whom the prophets also wrote" (John 1:45)
