B513 - God's Goodness through the Biblical Holidays

There is much to learn about the Biblical Holidays such as Pesach (Passover), Shavuot (Pentecost), Sukkot (Tabernacles) and Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement).

This 154-page book covers both the biblical and the historical background to the way Jewish people celebrate them, as well as how the message and meaning of these holidays applies to us as believers in Jesus Christ today.

£12.00 including post & packing.

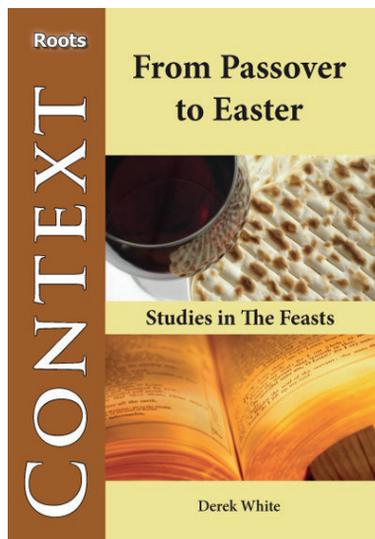

BT25 - From Passover to Easter

Many Christians regard Easter as a purely Christian invention, while others reject it because of its pagan associations. Both these perspectives are wrong.

This 32-page booklet covers questions like:

- Where did Easter come from?
- Why is it held at this time of year?
- Where in the Bible are we told to celebrate it?
- Has it any connection with the Old Testament?

CDS26 - Misconceptions about Jesus & Passover

Many are the misunderstandings of the most dramatic 24 hours in history - from the Passover Seder to the crucifixion and burial of Jesus. Dwight Pryor clarifies these issues in this fascinating set of 4 audio CDs.

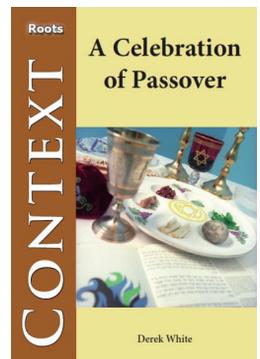

1. Misconceptions about Passover (55 minutes)
2. Who Killed Jesus? (56 minutes)
3. The Passover Plot (58 minutes)
4. Has God Rejected Israel? (75 minutes)

£9.50 including post & packing.

BT15 - A Celebration of Passover

This 24-page booklet provides Christians with an Order of Service for a Passover celebration based on the Jewish Haggadah, together with a helpful introduction explaining how the feast ties in with Jesus' death, burial and resurrection as the Passover Lamb of God.

£3.50 including post & packing.

BT63 - Christ in the Passover

This 12-panel foldout pamphlet shows the parallels between the Passover in the Old Testament and the work of Jesus Christ as the perfect Passover Lamb in the New Testament. It is helpful in explaining the Jewish heritage of Christianity.

A script for a Christian Passover Seder is included, with everything needed, including the recipes.

£4.00 including post & packing.
